Quilting sisters show community support by stitching quilts

CHETEK ALERT PHOTO

A STITCH IN TIME—Members of the Chetek Stitching Sisters Quilting Guild presented this quilt to the raffle winner on Monday, Oct. 15. The quilt was completed in April and displayed at a quilt show in July and around Chetek over the summer. During Harvest Fest on Sept. 8, guild members drew the winning ticket for the lucky recipient of the quilt. More than 2,000 tickets were sold, and Sue Paulson of the Sand Creek area was the winner. Pictured above are, left to right: Carol Busta (who drew the winning ticket), Jane Martin (quilt designer), Sue Paulson (raffle winner), and Carol Stanonik (quilt designer).
